Symbols That Reflect the

Proclamation

Let it be known to all present and to posterity that this bell, "OLD VIC," is hereby designated as the official bell of VICTORY for Saint Wendelin High School. It is to be rung immediately following any Varsity Athletic Victory or on other joyous occasions within our hallowed halls by a designated member of the SENIOR CLASS. Let it also be understood that it is the solemn duty of the Senior Class to care for and maintain the condition of "OLD VIC."

A

JEANNE ANN AFFHOLDER

CYO 1,2,3,4; Glee Club 3; Pep Club 3,4; FOSLIN Staff Assistant 4.

Jeannie is an avid reader and also likes to write stories of her own . . . She can be seen driving her brother and sisters to school in a Chevy "bus," and you'd better stay out of her way when she's behind the wheel . . . Jeanne likes to swim, ice skate, or play basketball in her spare time . . . She will always be remembered for her forgetfulness . . . In the future, Jeanne would like to attend nursing school.

B

JANET KAY BABB

CYO 1,2,3,4; FOSLIN Staff 4.

Janet, or "Babbo," as she is sometimes called, is the youngest of the fourteen children in her family . . . She celebrates her birthday on April 1—no fooling! . . . She's famous for talking in class and her pet peeve is people who try to be someone they're not . . . The song "Exodus" is one of her favorites, while swimming and dancing rate as her "choice" recreations . . . Janet plans to attend a Beautician school after graduation.

STEVEN JOHN BALSER

CYO 1,2,3,4; Class Officer 3,4—Treasurer; Football 1,2,3,4; Football letter 3,4; Representative to Boys' State 3.

Steve, better known as "Red," thinks that June 16 is the only day that rates . . . Lists Boys' State as his most exciting experience . . . Showed his superb acting ability in the Christmas Ghoulardi Skit . . . Famous for his luminous red hair and his practical jokes . . . One of the many gridiron heroes who helped capture the Seaway Conference Trophy . . . Likes to listen to "Blowing in the Wind" while eating his favorite food—potato pancakes . . . College is a definite YES for Steve.

MARGAURITE ANN BOES

CYO 1,2,3,4; Horizon Club 1,2,4; Glee Club 1,2; Band 1,2,3,4; Majorette 1,2,3,4; Dance instructor 3,4; FOSLIN Staff 4.

"Maggie" can usually be found at the "Snack Time" eating a pizza or dancing . . . On Saturday she's kept busy working at her own baton studio . . . During the summer and the football season Maggie worked hard to instruct the "High Stepping Saints," and she did a fine job . . . Her favorite days are July 10, her birthday, and that first petrifying, but joyful, day of high school . . . She detests people who put on a front to try to be something they aren't . . . After graduation, Maggie plans to open a dance studio in Fostoria.

THOMAS EUGENE BOFF

CYO 1,2,3,4; Football 1; Basketball 1; Acolyte 1,2.

"Boffy" is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Aloysius Boff . . . His proudest moment came when he received his first car . . .He likes to work on his car or engage in his favorite recreations of hunting and basketball . . . The outstanding fact about the Boff family is their fine baked goods . . . Tom likes fried chicken and just about any kind of pie . . . After graduation Tom plans to become a barber.

CONSTANCE LEE BRICKNER

CYO 1,2,3,4; CYO Officer-Treasurer 4; Librarian 2,3,4; Chronicle Leader 2; Pep Club 2,3,4; Horizon 2—President; FOSLIN—Associate Editor 4.

This active girl really enjoys swimming and talking . . . Her blond hair and blue eyes look especially nice when complemented by her favorite color—blue . . . Can be heard "sighing" when her ears catch the tune of "Days of Wine and Roses" . . . Very talented seamstress . . . Loyal supporter of the Mohawks . . . Wears a frown on her face when she hears people brag or talk about themselves . . . Plans a career in X-ray technology.

DAVID JOSEPH BRICKNER

CYO 1,2,3,4; Acolyte 1,2,3,4.

Dave "Brick" Brickner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Brickner, has always been the class jester . . . September 1 is his special day and on this day he enjoys his favorite, roast pheasant . . . Blowing up the chemistry lab, ice-skating, and swimming are his pastimes . . .He'll never forget the day he acquired his "Jolly Green Chevy" and he is noted for his excellent (?) auto handling abilities . . . He loves green, "Sherry," and reading . . . Dave is undecided on whether to devote himself to science or agriculture.

JAMES MICHAEL BURKART

CYO 1,2,3,4; CYO Sports Chairman 4; CYO basketball 2,3,4; Football 1; Mission leader 1,2; Drama Club 4.

Jim, or "Lil Jess," as he is known by all is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Burkart . . . His likes include steak, the colors brown and green, folk songs, basketball, and Sunday afternoon hootenannies . . . Spends his senior year after school hours at Seneca Lumber . . . Landed leading role as Charley in "Charley's Aunt" . . . Looks forward to that last minute in chemistry class . . . Wrangles away his Sunday afternoons . . . Famous for helping the missions by "chewing gum." Jim plans a college education for the future.

C

JANE MARIE COOK

CYO 1,2,3,4; Sodality 1,2,3,4; Honor Society 2,3,4; Horizon Club 1,2,3,4; Pep Club 2,3,4; Drama Club 4; FOSLIN Staff 4.

This brown-eyed, brown-haired daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Verner Cook answers to her given name . . . Always has a "wise-crack" . . . Quite ambitious, as she manages to take a college preparatory course and keep up her grades, hold down a part-time job, and participate in quite a few extra-curricular activities at the same time . . . Jane's most exciting event was winning a "car" . . . Some of her favorite recreations include sewing, playing tennis, and going to the beach . . . Plans to attend college.

SALLY ANN COPPUS

CYO 1,2,3,4; Class Vice President 1,3,4; Band 1; Honor Society 2,3,4; Glee Club 1,2,3; Horizon Club 1,2,3,4; Sodality 1,2,3,4; Pep Club 2,3,4; FOSLIN Staff 4.

Sally, the hard-working vice president of the Senior Class, can be seen bombing around in "Virgil" any time she isn't busy on some activity . . . Eating steak or chocolate cake, wearing green, listening to "Summer Song" or "Clair de Lune," working math problems—these are her special amusements . . . She lists SSCA '63 and '64 Conventions as her memorable events and most enjoys working on class projects . . . Is best known for her red-hair and accompanying personality. Plans a math major in secondary education at Ohio State for her future.

D

SANTOS DE LA ROSA

Football 1,2,3,4; Football Letter 3,4.

This friendly young man is especially happy when participating in any of his favorite sports—football, swimming, and weight-lifting . . . Thrives on the color blue, a good steak dinner, and any popular music . . . Sometimes very quiet, but looks can be deceiving . . . plays an extra game of billiards every October 23 . . . Rates Bookkeeping as the "only" subject . . . Has a secret ambition to become an accountant and to accomplish this desire, he will seek further business education.

DEBORAH ANN DELL

This busy sandy-haired daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Dell likes to eat beef roast . . . Often puts in her bid for her family's "shiny black Ford" . . . The earthy colors of brown and green are her "choice" . . . Is happiest when listening to the music from "West Side Story" . . . People who are always grouchy and can't take a joke don't rate at all with Debbie . . . She's an avid basketball and football fan . . . After graduation she plans to attend BGSU and major in education.

MARY JO DEPINET

CYO 1,2,3,4; Sodality 1,2,3,4; Drama Club 4; Pep Club 2,3,4; Horizon Club 1,2,3,4; FOSLIN Staff 4.

Mary Jo is the brown-eyed, blonde-haired daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Depinet . . . Has a little trouble now and then with her sewing projects but has no trouble at all ice-skating, swimming, or playing tennis . . . Her most exciting event was the night a real live bear came to the cabin when she was vacationing in Canada . . . Mary Jo works part time at Fostoria City Hospital.

ALFREDO DIAZ

Football 1; FOSLIN Staff 4.

Better known as "Smiley" . . . oldest of ten children and says that he thinks his family's "awfully big" . . . Fred was born on February 4, 1946, and for the past three years has worked at the Great Scot Supermarket . . . A two-tone Chevy is his proudest possession . . . Likes Italian and Spanish food, his hobby of photography, and football but doesn't like braggers . . . Is pursuing a business course or possibly college.

Barb, the pretty personable daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Droll lists her favorites as green, steaks, the songs, "Willow, Weep for Me" and 'Softly as I Leave You," bowling, basketball, dancing, and listening to records . . . Barb's pleasant smile helps her with her pastime—meeting new people . . . She is always willing to lend a helping hand . . . After graduation, Barb intends to enter nurses' training.

NANCY ANN DROLL

CYO 1,2,3,4; Glee Club 1; Pep Club 2,3,4; Horizon Club 1,2,3; FOSLIN Staff 4.

Nancy favors fried chicken and the color pink . . . Her favorite recreation is just plain having fun . . . When she isn't busy hitting the books she can be found watching a basketball game, babysitting, or listening to "Town Without Pity" . . . This cute green-eyed, brown-haired girl, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Droll, plans to be a secretary after graduation . . . Nancy dislikes people who think they are superior . . . She has a special interest in Santa Claus since her birthday is on December 24.

PAUL LAWTON DURNWALD

Football 1; Basketball 1,2; FOSLIN Staff 4.

Paul "Riley" Durnwald can be seen toting his Fuller Brush bag around in his spare time . . . The proudest moment of his life occurred when he "finally" got his driver's license . . . He can be found listening to his favorite records, "High Noon" and "Pretty Woman" in his spare time . . . Paul, who has black hair and brown eyes, states that his most exciting event was a trip to Phoenix, Arizona . . . He plans to attend college after graduation.

E

MARY JO ELCHERT

"Moose" is a very likeable girl who has the interesting hobby of helping people to laugh . . . Besides her bowling scores, of which she's always proud, Mary Jo is also an accomplished actress since she performed in both the sophomore CYO one-act play and the Drama Club production in her senior year . . . Mary Jo is preparing for a secretarial career.

STEPHEN CHARLES EMERINE

Acolyte 1,3; FOSLIN Staff 4.

"Metrecal's" life revolves around his two motorcycles . . . Has trophies to show his skill in handling them . . . Steve likes good steak, the color blue, playing pool, golfing, and the song "Ringo" . . . Holds a part-time job at Pelton's Super Market . . . Steve claims he is famous for "telling the truth" . . . His special day is August 21 . . . Pet saying—"no brains, no headache" . . . Steve followed a business course in his four years at SWHS . . . Plans to attend a meat-cutting school.

MICHAEL PATRICK ETCHEN

FOSLIN Staff 4.

Michael Patrick Etchen, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Etchen, has the service in his future . . . Etch, as he is better known, likes the song, "Little Latin Lupe de Lu" . . . If you have heard someone yelling, "'Bout two-five" down the hallowed halls of St. Wendelin, you can usually attribute it to Mike . . . He uses his muscular frame to carry out groceries at the A & P in his spare time . . . He rates December 20 as the best day of the year . . . After he graduates, Mike will leave a sister, Carol, to carry on the Etchen name in high school.

THOMAS LEE EVANS

CYO 1,2,3,4; CYO One-Act Play 2; FOSLIN Staff 4.

When he's not studying, Tom can often be found working at Montgomery Ward's . . . His hobby is driving around in his newly self-remodeled 1955 Chevy . . . When he runs out of gas, he plays basketball . . . Brown is his favorite color and it just happens to be the color of his hair and eyes . . . A distinguished member of the cast of "Widow's Plight" . . . After leaving St. Wendelin's, Tom hopes to attend Bailey Technical School.

F

JANE ANN FAETH

CYO 1,2,3,4; CYO One-Act Play 2; Drama Club 3,4; Teen Column Editor 4; Cheerleader 1; Horizon Club 1,2,3,4; FOSLIN Staff 4.

Jane, the five-foot, two-inch daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Faeth, has been around since August 27, 1947 . . . She will long be remembered for her remarkable ability as an accomplished actress . . . Jane's especially happy when cheering on the SWHS football team, meeting new boys, or listening to the song, "Gone With the Wind" . . . Is the first one on the dance floor . . . Her pet peeve: "People who make cutting remarks to others about their height or weight . . . Jane plans to enter the business world after high school.

SHARON KAY FERGUSON

CYO 1,2,3,4; FOSLIN Staff 4.

This pert blue-eyed, blonde-haired girl dislikes to get up early in the morning . . . Can be seen tearing up the roads in her '55 Chevy . . . Sharon looks especially nice in the colors blue and yellow (her favorites, natch) . . . Has no favorite food, likes almost anything . . . March 10 is her special day . . . In her spare time she loves to dabble in the art of cooking, or just go out for a coke . . . Famous for talking and eating . . . Accounting is a "maybe" in her future plans.

CONSTANCE SUSAN FRISCH

CYO 1,3,4; Band 1,2; Pep Club 2,3,4; Cheerleader 1,2; FOSLIN Staff 4.

Connie is the oldest of the eight children in the Frisch family . . . Famous for her tiny feet . . . When it comes to making beautiful clothes, Connie really takes the prize . . . Anything blue or brown looks good with her freckles and reddish-blonde hair . . . Likes to ice-skate, watch football games, and listen to the song "Sunday That Summer" . . . Her part-time babysitting job and her business courses really help to keep her busy . . . Her future is undecided.

G

GARRY LEE GRINE

CYO 1,2,3,4; CYO Basketball 3; YCS 3,4; Librarian 2; Spelling Winner 1; Baseball 1,2,3,4; Basketball 1,2,4; Basketball Letter 2,4; Manager 1,2; FOSLIN Staff 4.

Gary, or "Big Jess," as he is known by his friends, claims September 19, 1947, as his birthday . . . Is noted for his ability in basketball, baseball, folk singing, and cheerleading at the '63 Faculty game . . . He can be seen rodding his '51 "Plymmy", taking pictures for the CYO, or eating peanut butter and catsup sandwiches . . . Exclaims "Oh horse apples!" whenever he loses a coin from his collection . . . Claims "By Myself" as his favorite song and is proud of the fact that he helped in building his family's house . . . Will always be remembered as the proud owner of the 1965 Football mascot, TOMAHAWK.

MICHAEL ANTHONY GUNDLACH

CYO 1,2,3,4; Acolyte 1,2,3,4; Football 1;; Band 4; Drama Club 4; FOSLIN Staff 4.

This blue-eyed, 5' 9" senior lists steaks and the color blue as favorites . . . Races around town in a '55 Pontiac . . . "Suede" lists the final performance of "Charley's Aunt" as his proudest moment . . . During spare minutes enjoys listening to "Crying" and "Shout," and wrangling with the rest of the group . . . Mike will always be remembered for his "distinctive" taste in clothing and for his part in the "Ghoulardi" Christmas skit . . . Mike has his eyes on a college in Texas after graduation.

H

JEANNETTE ANN HAMMER

CYO 1,2,3,4; FOSLINI Staff 4.

The second of the four children in the Clarence Hammer family, "Nangy" adds another candle every April 11 . . . Is a blessing to her older sister, as she enjoys playing with her two nieces more than anything . . . Becoming a fine seamstress . . . Likes to spark up her eyes by wearing light blue . . . When not eating spaghetti or spinning old favorites, she loves to dance, especially square dancing . . . This 5' 7" gal is known for her quietness . . . Keeping debits and credits in balance is a growing problem. Here Mr. John Pocs, bookkeeping instructor, offers Tom Boff and Ronnie Williams some first-class direction.

Preparing for the Business "Whirl"

Kathy Spieldenner points to that special "70," while Kathy Phillips busily operates the Comptommeter in Office Practice session.

Making full use of SWHS's ample library facilities in their research work are Georgianne Nye and Kathleen Lord, juniors.

Learning via Research and Skill

These chaps have a double allegiance! Roger Radcliff, Charles Henricks, Dan Schultz, Tom Gillig, John Carrel, Epifanio Diaz, and Robert Hone check in from their daily drafting class at Fostoria High School.

Father Richard Wurzel may not look like Cicero, but he certainly knows how "to make Cicero come alive for the Pepsi generation" who make up his Latin III Class. Learning the secrets of Roman oratory Dave Parker (sliced?), Rick Lonsway, Dick Borer, Mike Sheeran, Gary Peltier, Martha Delgado, and Bob Reinhart.

"HI-TIME Magazine gives the modern approach to the religion classes of the under-classmen. On parade are Dianne Cool, Judy Bradner, Marlene Gase, David Parker, John Mann, and Gary Bulkowski.

A bit of trick photography catches the Pep Club in a quiet mood. Officers include: Patti Brickner, Sally Welly, Peggy Holman, and Linda Phillips.

These "Pepper-Uppers"

Star actors and actresses as well as behind-the-scenes crewmen comprise the roster of the Drama Club.

The Loyal Ones...

Pepped Peppily

Members of the French Club can be identified by their "Parlez-vous Francais?" accent: Claudia Haslinger, president; Patti Murrin, vice president; Rene Kiebel, Mary Ann Scharf, and Mary Ann Sheeran, first officers; Geogianne Nye, Kathy Lord, and Mike Wolfarth.

CYO's Father Lawrence Varney, moderator, and the officers: President Roger Keiffer; Secretary Kathy Phillips, Treasurer Connie Brickner; and Vice President Roger Holman plan the year's activities.

CYO on the Go!

Big guns in the CYO Cannon are committee chairmen: Gary Grine, David Schreiner, Mary Ann Scharf, Jim McCarty, Father Varney, Linda Phillips, Mary Jo Elchert, Jeanne Reinhart, James Pigman, and Donna Haslinger.

Key "missioners" who helped make the 1965 Mardi-Gras Mission Party a huge success are Georgia Nye and Kathy Lord, juniors; Suzi Hammer, senior with "Elmer"; Carolyn Strouse, sophomore; and Carol Balser, freshman.

Girls' and Boys' State delegates made with a week of vigorous civic activity in June of 1964: Jerry Woessner, alternate; Steve Balser, delegate; Barbara Droll, alternate; and Martha Schroeder, delegate.

The "WRANGLERS" were an added attraction at many student activities. These talented senior boys include Gary Grine, Terry Miller, Mike Gundlach, Terry Lord. and Jim Burkart.

Senior acolytes are commended for their loyalty as "Knights of the Altar" for twelve years. The "Seven Uppers" include: Terry Miller, Jerry Woesner, David Brickner, Daniel Saldulsky, Terry Lord, David Schreiner, and Michael Gundlach.

The Spiritual Life in Focus at SWHS

This quartet of Sodalists talk over the year's activities in the interest of Our Lady's Sodality: Martha Delgado, secretary; Roi Ann Nye, treasurer; Barbara Droll, vice prefect; and Mary Ann Sheeran, prefect.

This is S.W.H.S....

Friendship.

Kathy, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Spieldenner, has beautiful, long auburn hair for which she is famous . . . Likes steak, Kelly green, and the song "Blue Velvet" . . Writing letters and reading occupy her spare moments . . . "Kate" was extra proud when she rated her driver's license . . . Her hazel eyes see red whenever she encounters an inconsiderate or untrustworthy person . . . Displayed her acting talents in the lead role of "Widow's Plight" . . . Can really tear the keys off a typewriter . . . Kathy would like to attend college when she graduates.

RICHARD C. SPIELDENNER

CYO 1,3.

Clear and deep thinker . . . Is happiest when engrossed in a novel . . . Reads an extra book every January 3 . . . Can win over to his side anyone in a debate . . .Isn't usually talkative, but when he has something to say, you can guess it's important . . . Compassionate and understanding . . . Content when helping others and has visions of somehow making a career of this . . . Hopes to someday enter the Peace Corps.

MARY ELLEN STEARNS

CYO 1,2,4; Band 1,2; Homemaker Award—4-H 4.

Mary Ellen likes to swim, no matter what season . . . Will always remember the time the rowboat she was a passenger in nearly got hit by a "huge" ferry . . . Has dancing green eyes that can hardly be seen when she laughs . . . The Arcadia prom holds special memories . . . Is one of the few lucky girls with her own car—a '61 Comet, yet . . . Is especially happy when wearing something blue and listening to "The Wedding" . . . Wants to be a practical nurse.

T

JAMES PAUL THEIS

CYO 1,2,3,4; Football 1,2,3,4; Football Letter 2,3,4; FOSLIN Staff 4.

"Whitey," who can usually be found buzzing around town in a 1962 red Valiant, lists football as his favorite sport whether he's watching or playing . . . Jim enjoys golfing, swimming, working on his car, or just driving around . . . Steak, red, "People Say" are some of his favorites . . . After graduation he plans to go to college but has not yet decided which he'd like to attend

W

GEORGE RAYMOND WELLY

CYO 1,2,3,4; Football 1,2,3,4; Football Letter 2,3,4; Basketball 1,2,3,4; Basketball Letter 2,3,4.

George Welly, known as "Chief" to almost everyone, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Welly on May 26, 1947 . . . He is an outstanding quarterback . . . An active CYO member . . . Can be seen driving a 1958 blue Ford . . . Particularly enjoys going hunting and water skiing . . . He likes to eat steak while listening to the record "Do Wa Didy" or "Moon River" . . . George has a parttime job at Smith's Farms and after graduation plans to attend the BGSU Branch.

RONALD JOSEPH WILLIAMS

CYO 1,2,4; Football 1.

Ronnie was born on August 5, 1947, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Williams . . . Has a special attachment to Saint Joseph . . . "Willey's" hobby is cars—working on model cars or his own '59 Plymouth . . . His favorites include baseball, steak, and blue . . . Is following in the footsteps of his father, as he is employed at Gray's Printing . . . Is looking forward to a college education, but is undecided where.

RONALD JOSEPH WILLIAMS

CYO 1,2,3,4; Football 1,3,4; Football Letter 3,4.

Came into the world on April Fools' Day, 1947 . . . Can be seen whipping all over town in a '55 Pontiac . . . Spends his spare time working at the Buckeye Mart and "tinkering" with his car . . . Football fan . . . Has worked hard on a college preparatory course . . . Pet peeve: Girls who smoke . . . Lists trip to Arizona as most memorable experience . .. Prays to St. Francis of Assissi for guidance . . . Famous for being quiet.

GERALD PHILIP WINDAU

CYO 1,2,4.

Jerry, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Windau, is a lanky, blue-eyed 5' 9" radio repairman who furnished loads of laughter for all . . . The fact that he can get in and out of places easier than anyone else accounts for his nickname "Twister" . . . He played a wonderful part in his junior year's Christmas skit . . . Jerry likes to eat his favorite food, chili, while listening to "Four Strong Winds" . . . His favorite hobby is repairing old radios . . . Was named as a candidate for Anapolis, Maryland . . . Will soon be "decked out in Navy blue" . . .

GERALD PHILLIP WOESSNER

CYO 1,2,3,4; Acolyte 1,2,3,4; CYO One-Act Play 2; Class President 3,4; Football 1; Basketball 1; FOSLIN Staff 4.

Wears well the class robes of presidency . . . A real great guy and a true friend . . . Personality kid . . . Classy dresser . . . His smile is one of his many assets . . . Has part-time job at Mose-Lamfrom's . . . Works hardest on April 17 . . . Likes to wear brown or blue to accentuate his brown eyes and strawberry-blond hair . . . "Uncle Jerry" feels that "someone who cracks a 'crummy' joke and laughs at it himself" is his pet peeve . . . Success is sure to figure in his future . . . College is definitely in his plans.

MARY AGNES WOLPH

CYO 1,2,3,4; Pep Club 3,4; Horizon Club 1,2,3,4; FOSLIN Staff 4.

Mary, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Wolph, came into the world on February 8 . . . She has light brown hair and likes to show off her blue eyes by wearing the color navy blue . . . Her favorite recreations are swimming and dancing . . . People who think they're better than others certainly can't win this girl's favor . . . Mary plans to attend business college.

Y

JANE MARIE YOST

CYO 1,2,3,4; Sodality 1: Horizon Club 2,3,4; FOSLIN Staff 4.

If, while attending a movie lately, you were greeted by a smiling strawberry blonde, it was probably Jane, for she's been employed at the State Theater since her sophomore year . . . While not working or doing homework, Jane can be found eating steak, dancing to "Moon River" or "Mr. Lonely," and wearing the pretty blue clothes that she enjoys making . . . Jane's present plans for the future consist of attending secretarial school or perhaps nurses' training.

Z

FREDERICK PAUL ZIEGMAN

CYO 1,2,3,4; CYO Basketball 2,3,4; FOSLIN Staff 4; Drama Club 4.

Fred believes: "It's not the size of the dog in the fight, but the size of the fight in the dog". His most exciting experience was participating in the famous Ghoulardi skit . . . He left his mark on St. Wendelin's by winning the "Name-the-Horse-Contest" and is famous for his jokes . . . The selection of Fred's part in "Charley's Aunt" proved to be a wise choice, since he is so very dignified in real life . . . Likes basketball, "Moon River," and hamburgers, but states that he doesn't like snuck-up girls . . . Plans to go to college.

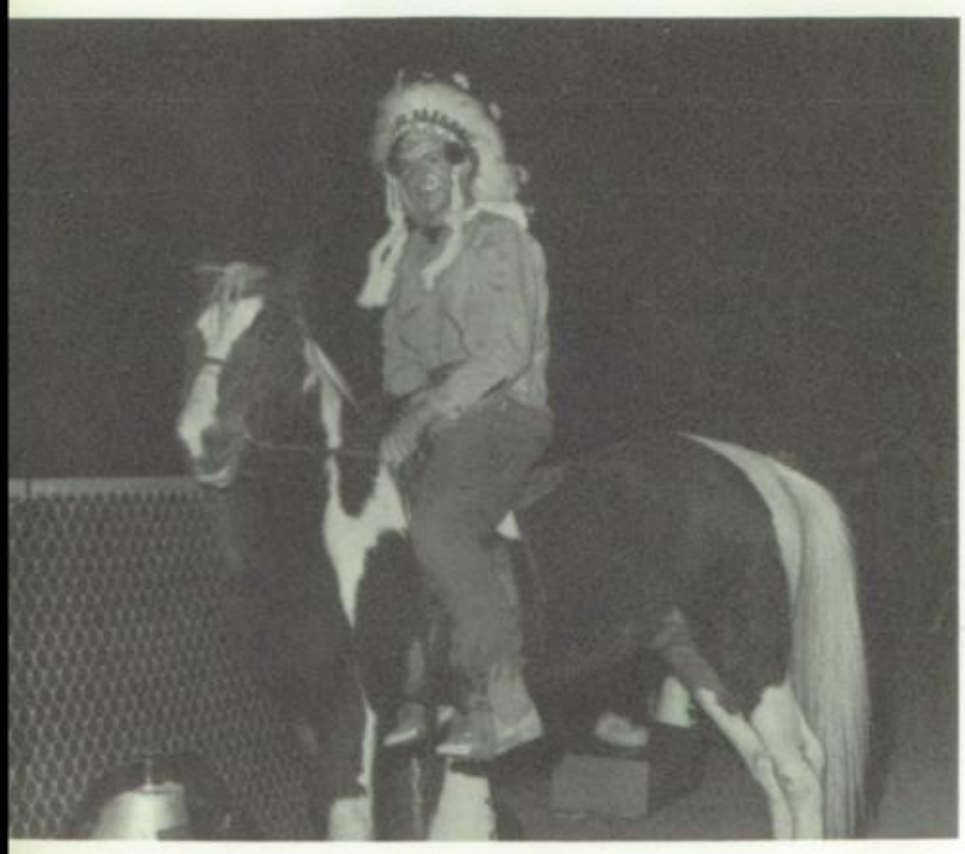
The cheerleaders have surprised the boys again with another of their "clever" ideas for the Mohawk's smashing entry.

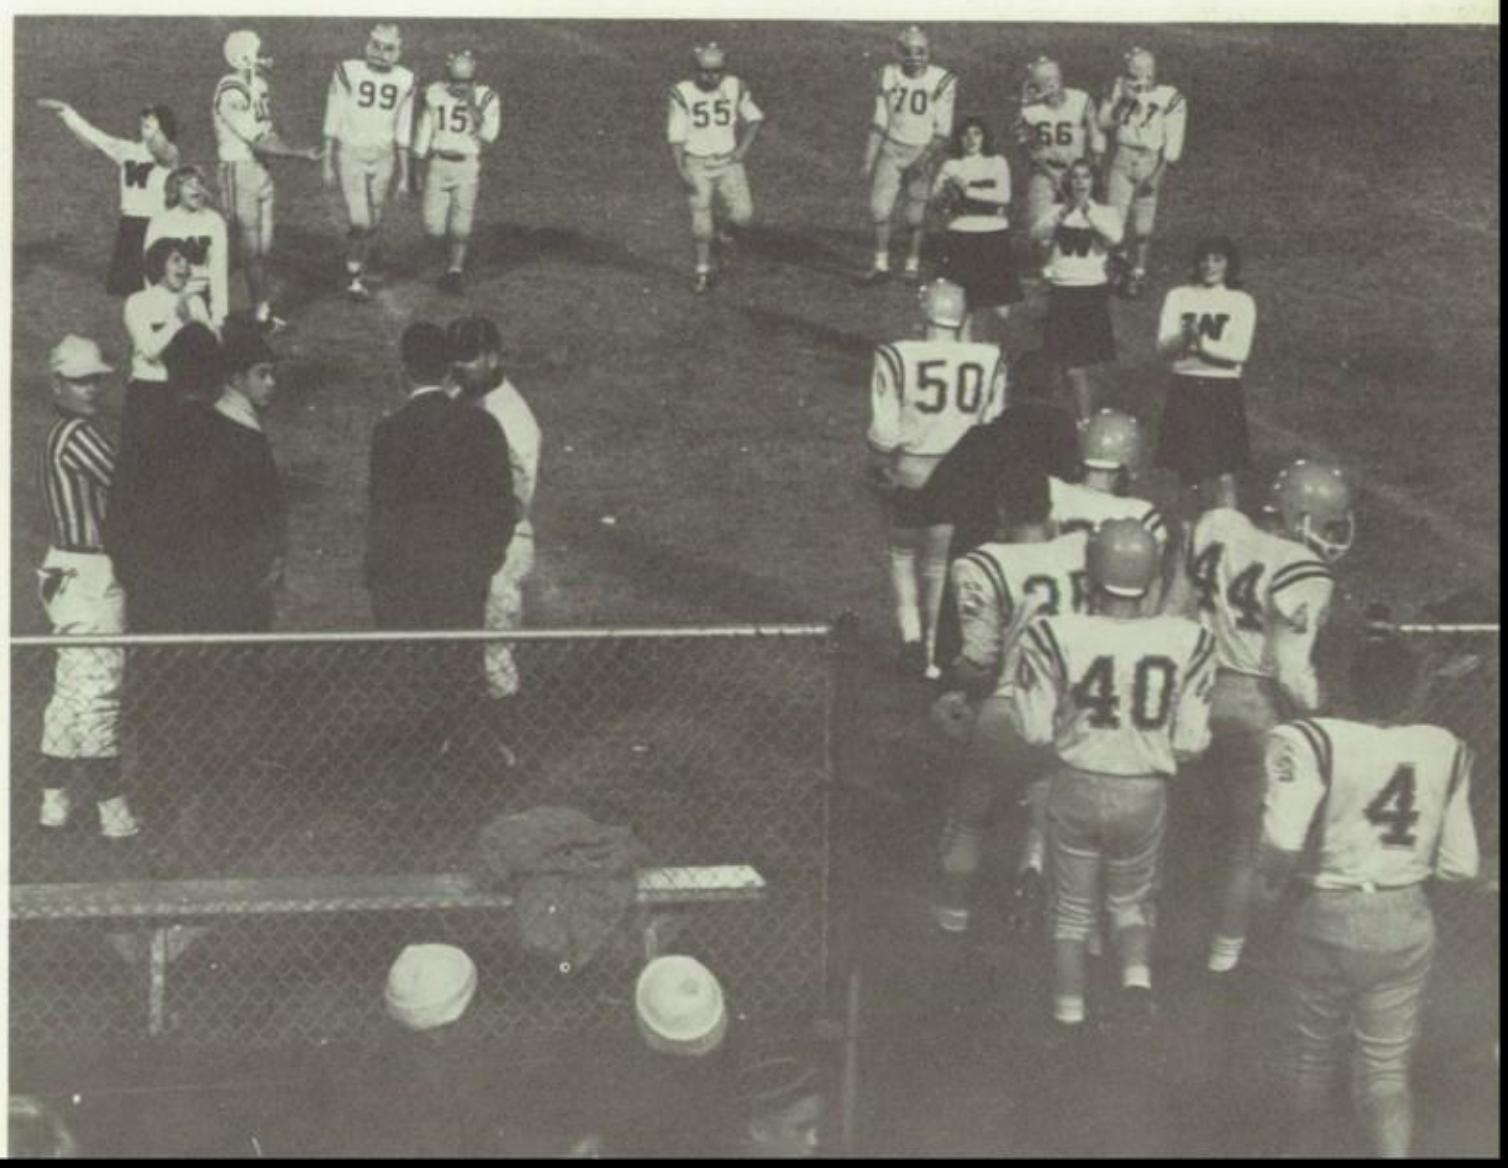


Gary Grine and the Mohawk Mascot, Tomahawk, provided a new attraction at the games.

Mohawk fans vigorously voice approval.

Every Winning Team!

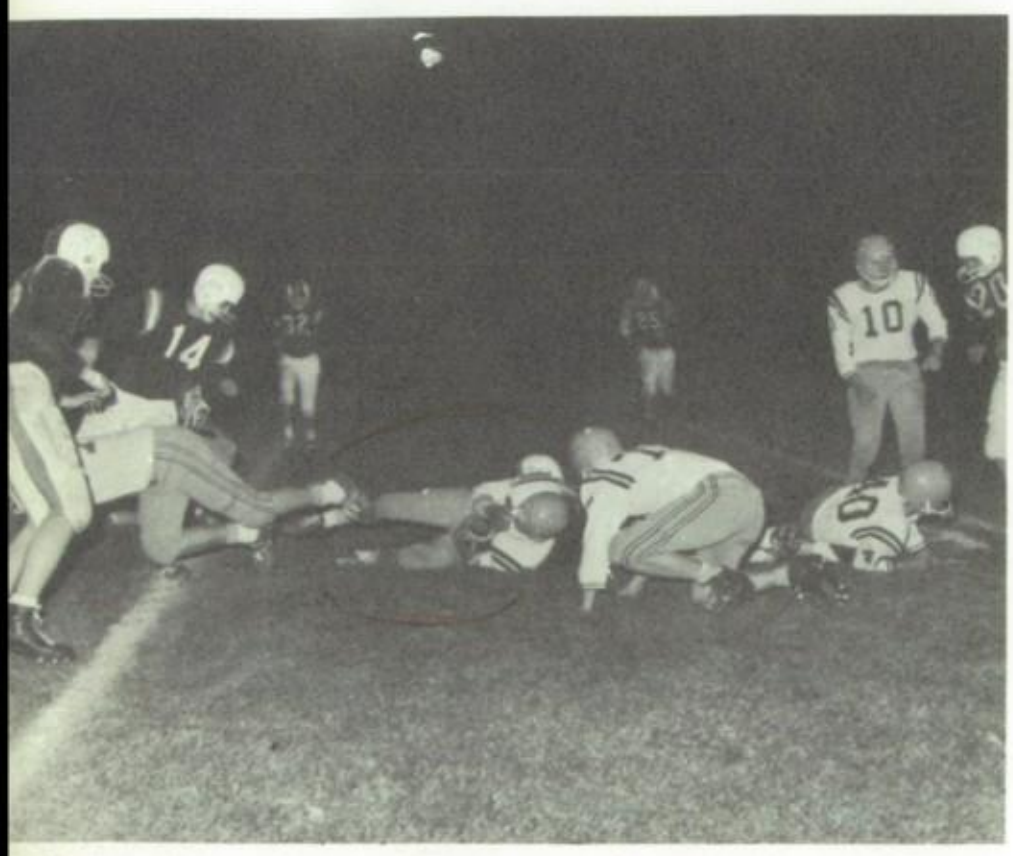
Six varsity cheer queens added a touch of glamour to all the games. These girls are Georgie Nye, Bonnie Price, Marty Schroeder, Kathy Herman, Kathy Lord, and Rene Kiebel.



"To Beat and Beat and Beat . . ." this was the determined motto of the Seaway Champs as they entered the arena for each game.

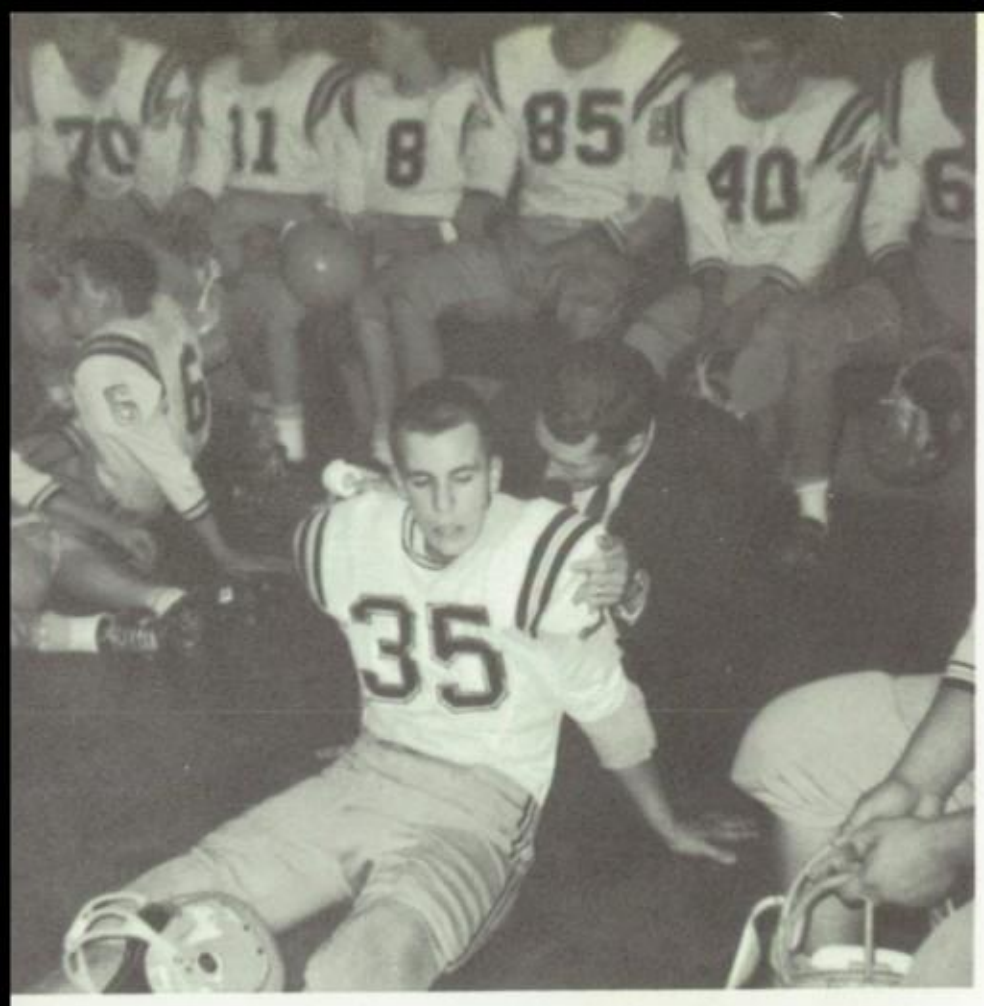
Go get 'em, Mohawks! Go get 'em!

Action . . .



Another first and ten . . .

How's that for fancy stepping!



Injuries—football's first mate. Coach Peluso is always ready with the tape.

Jim McCarty is raring to go after a quick drink.

Effect of Spirit!

Strong Mohawk reserves eagerly await a chance at the opponents.

A prayer for victory . . .

A last word of advice . . .

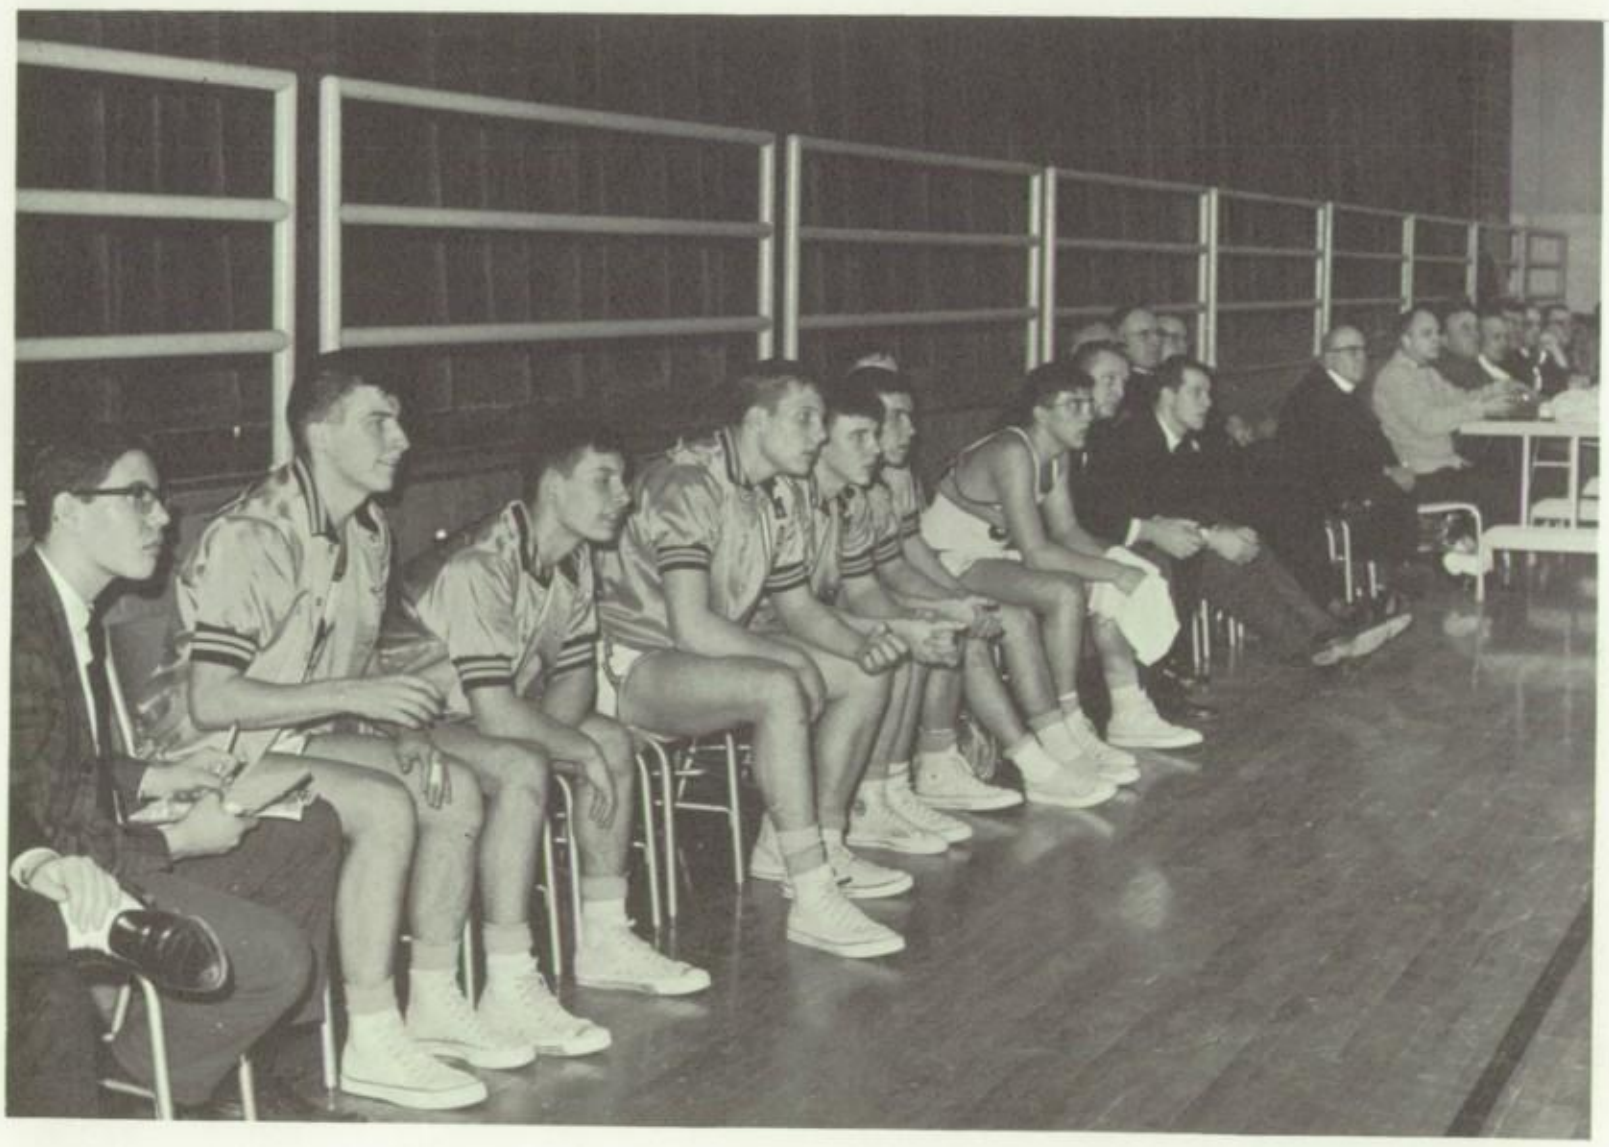
"It's a new dance, so just follow me," says Dave.

Bob Brickner employs a few fancy steps to block N. B.'s shot.

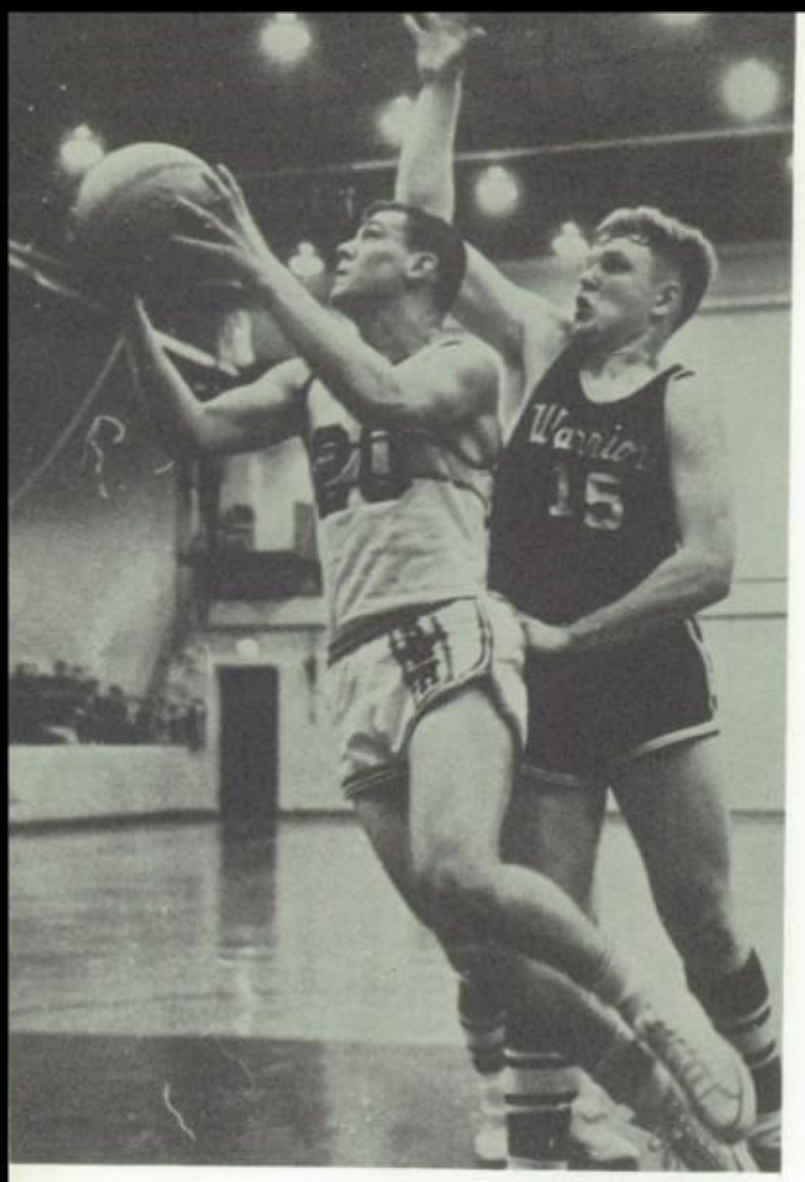
All heads turn as the Mohawks attempt that decisive shot.

Ball! Ball! Who has the ball?
(George, of course!)

A swift pass sets up another two for the mighty Mohawks!



Hard working substitutes add strength to the team.



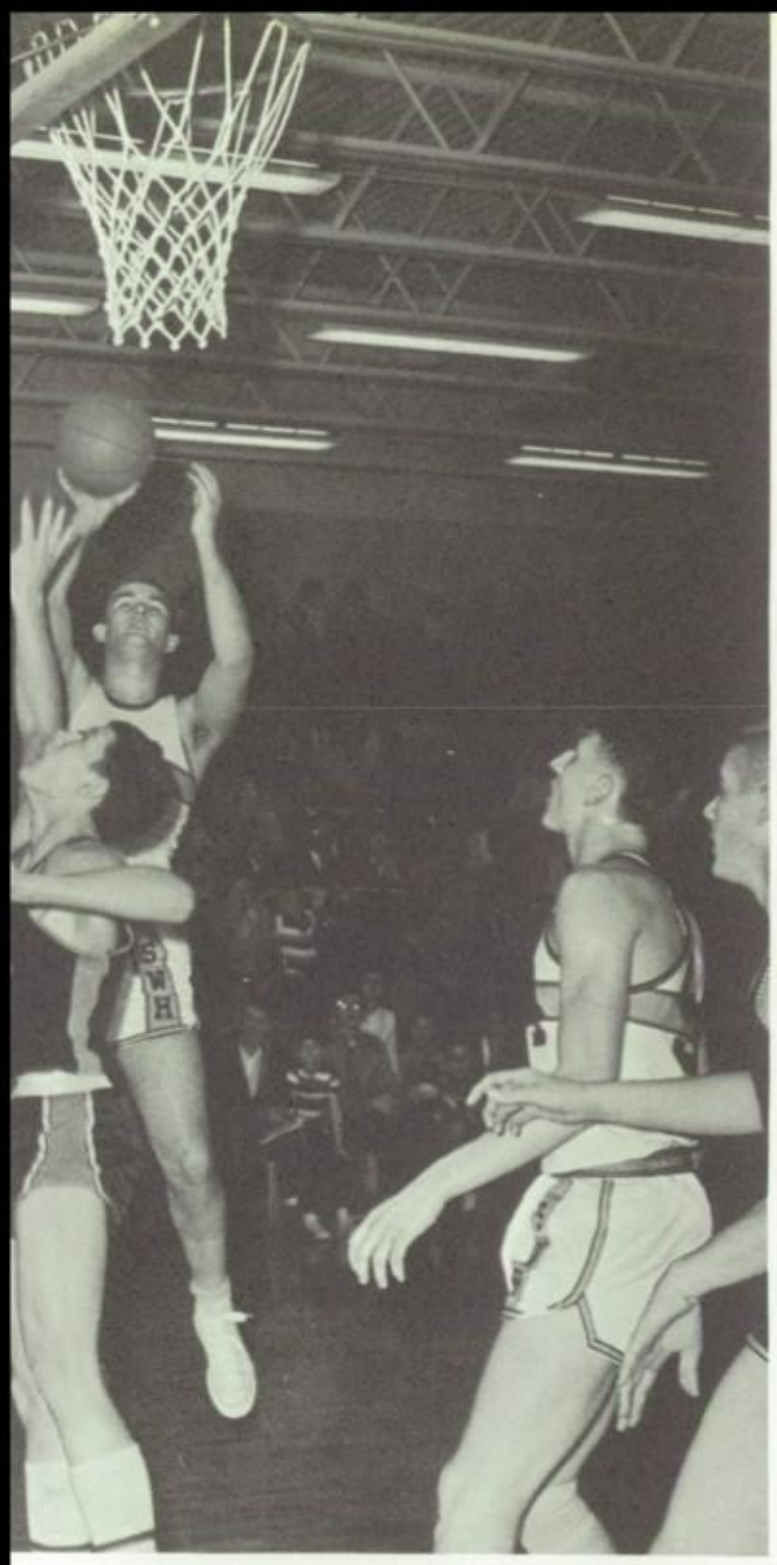
Hey, George! Watch that Warrior behind you.

Our virile Mohawks made the other team look like chorus girls. (Notice that kick!)

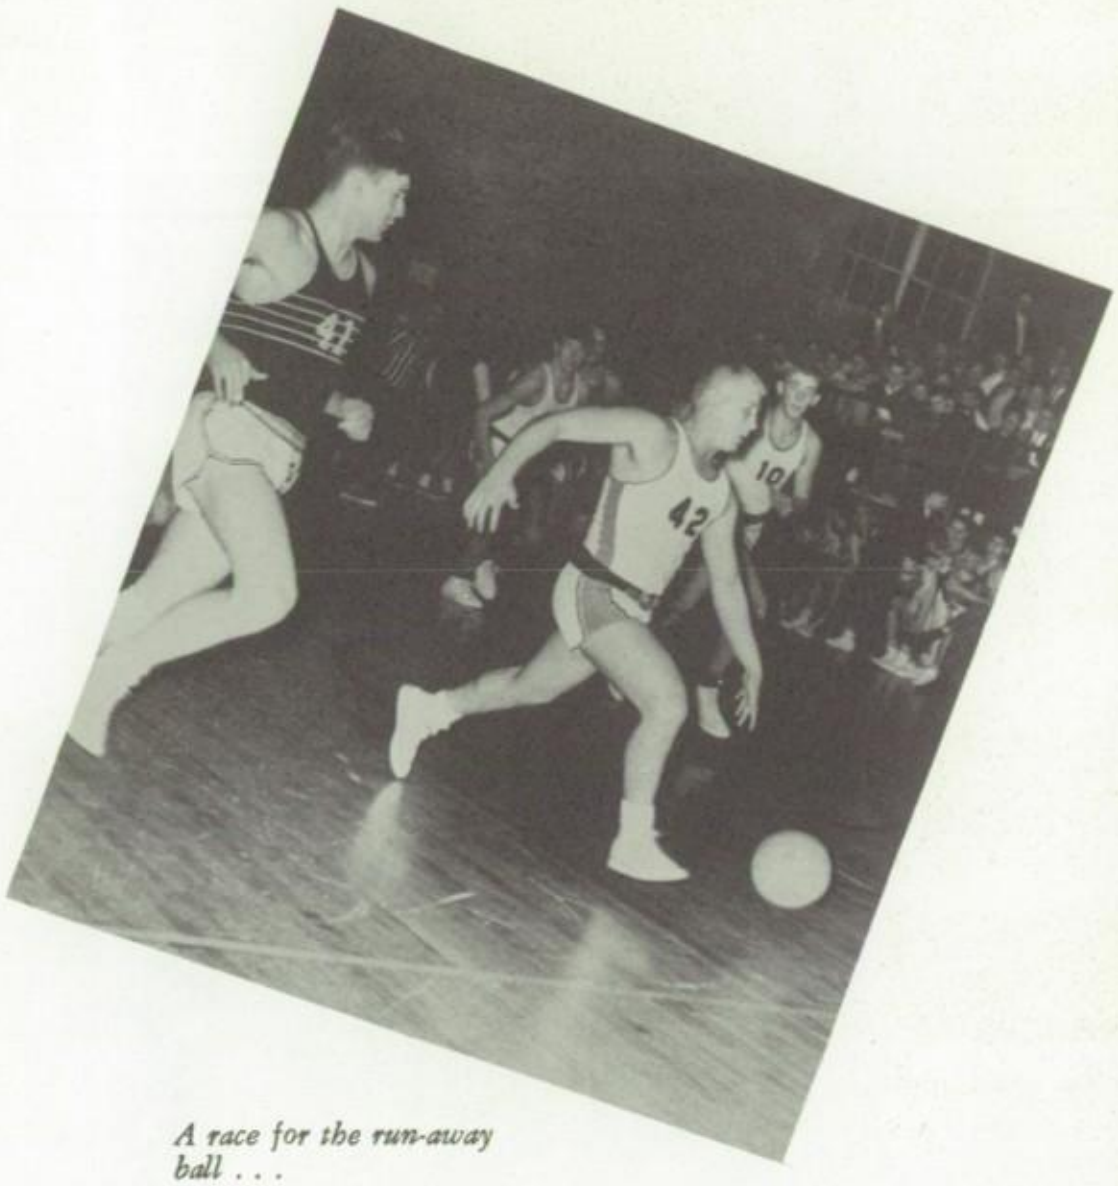
Foundations of success—our coaches!

The candid camera catches Coach Gene Peluso in one of his calmer moments.

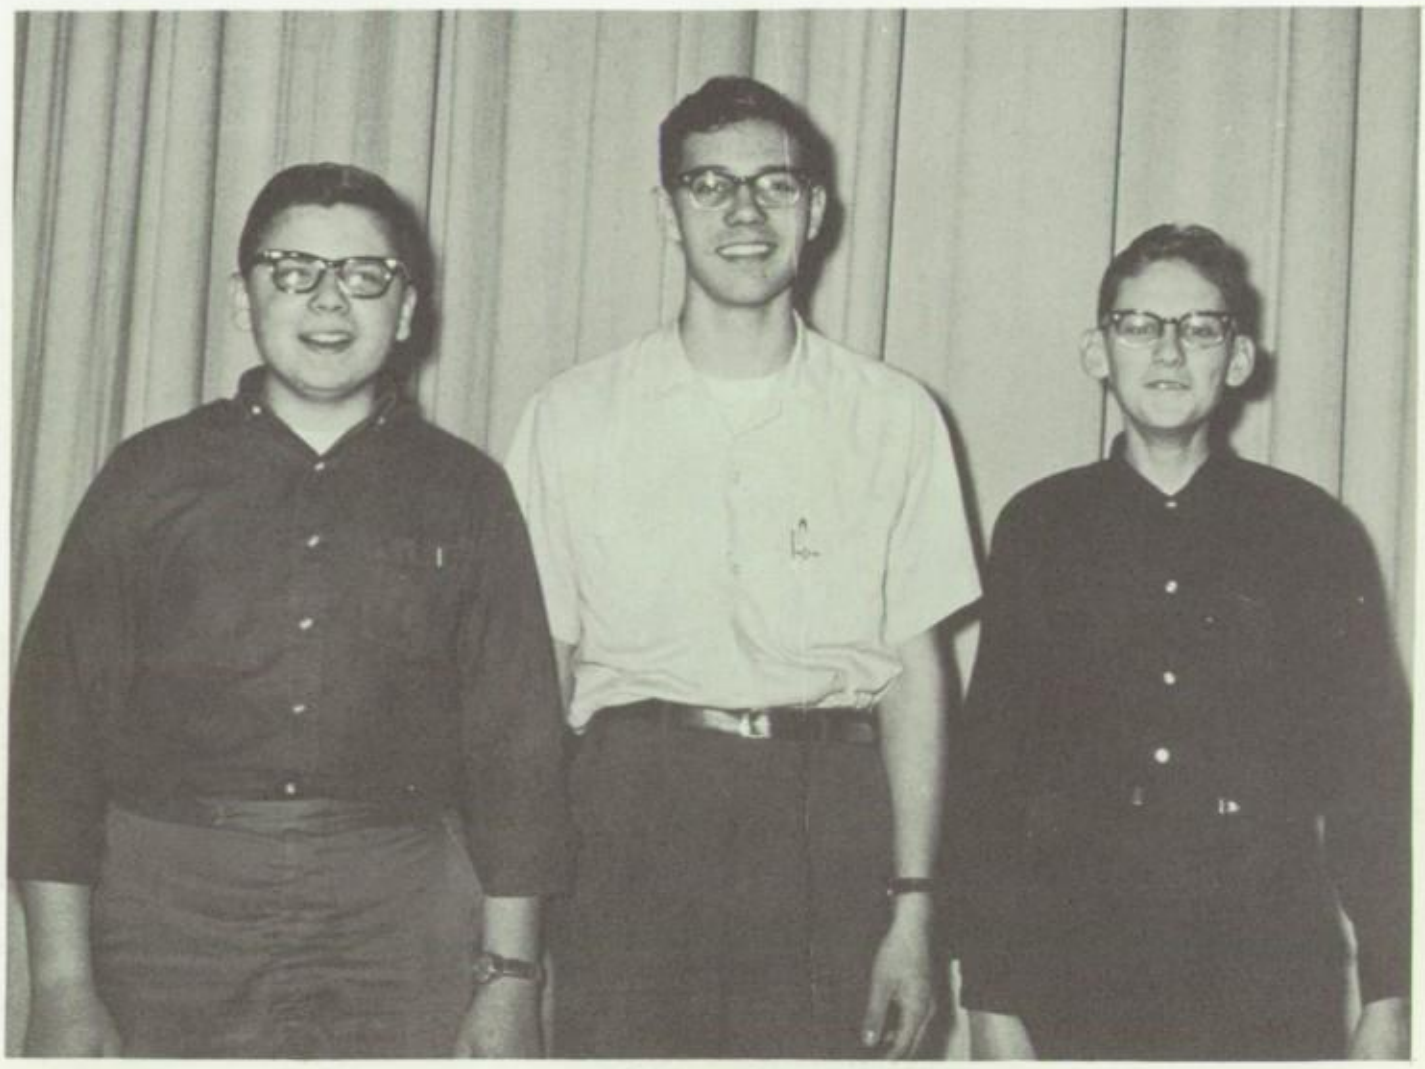
Coach Kenny Herman freezes with composure.



Wade pops in another!

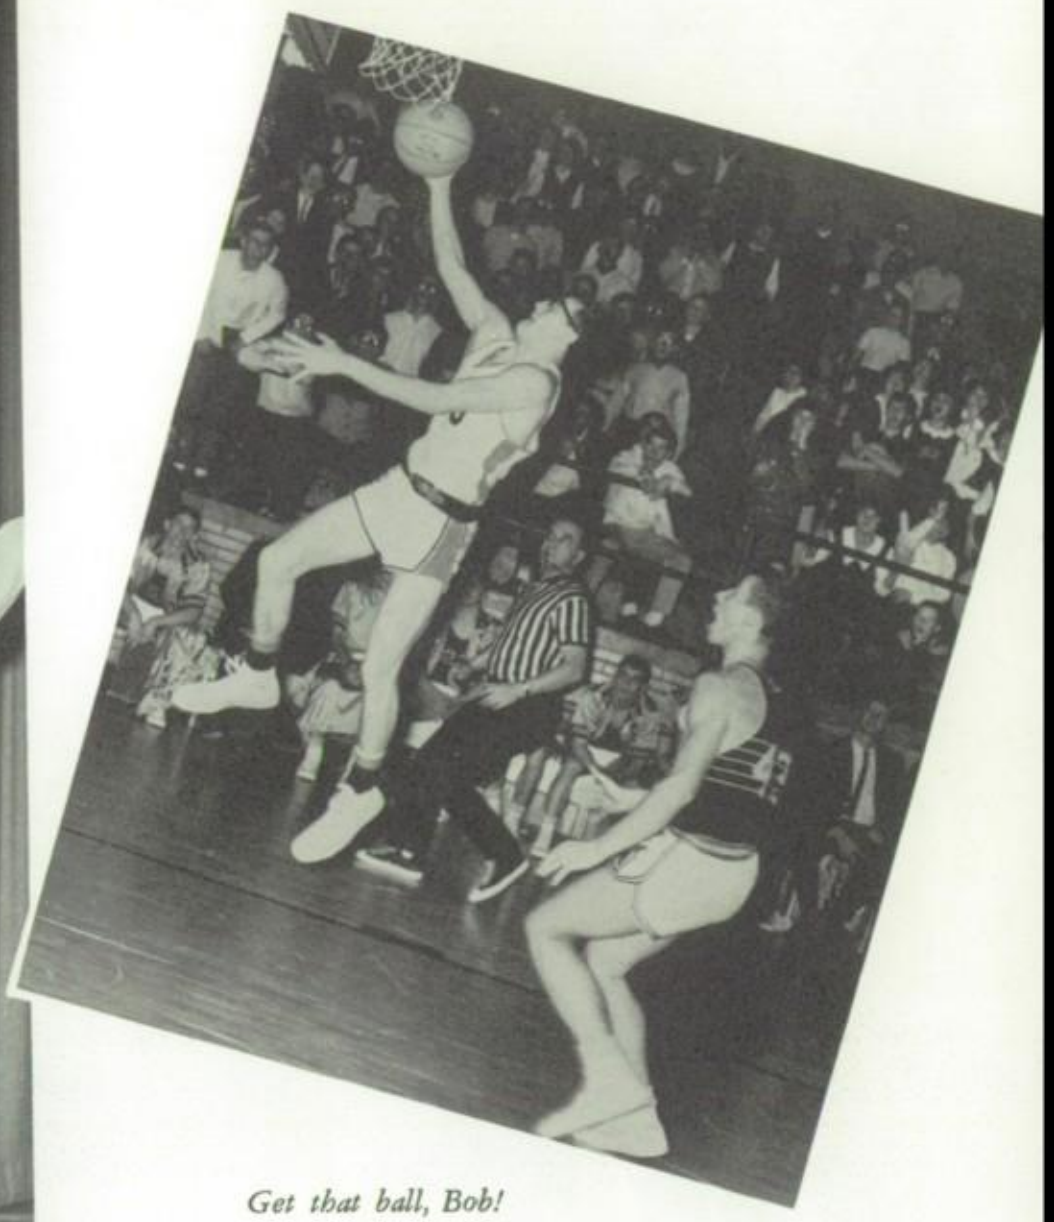


A race for the run-away ball . . .



The FOSLIN presents three behind-the-scenes men who helped engineer the successful 1965 Cage Season: Gary Snavely, manager; Karl Erbland, statistician; and Mike Wunderlin, manager.

Three senior cheerleaders: Bonnie Price, Rene Kiebel, and Marty Schroeder climax their cheer career with a victory pyramid and a smile.



Get that ball, Bob!

Junior Cheerleaders Georgie Nye, Kathy Herman, and Kathy Lord don't seem to be worried about keeping spirit high for next year.
